National Pastor Appreciation Day

NCEA has established the fourth Sunday of Easter (Good Shepherd Sunday) as the day we express our appreciation to pastors for their support of Catholic education. This year, NCEA is pleased to dedicate Sunday, May 3, 2015. NCEA encourages everyone to find an appropriate way to honor and thank their pastors on that day or during that week.

"40 Uses For Smartphone in School..." Or Perhaps... Catechetical Processes??"

This article gives an overview of 40 ways to use a smartphone in a classroom setting. Though our ministry work may not occur in a classroom model, the list of 40 can pertain to various catechetical work done within your local community, for younger learners ... or even adults!

Enjoy the article and consider the possibilities.

Funding Excellent Faith Formation: Our Sunday Visitor's Program to Educate, Engage and Evangelize

Extend your Faith Formation programs by using your parish website as part of your education plan.

Faith In Action websites from Our Sunday Visitor offer fresh, exciting information that educates readers about the faith, provides guidance for prayer and reflection, and strengthens Catholic families.

"Faith in Action websites are great for Faith Formation because they are another tool to get the message out. There are many things about the Catholic faith people don't fully understand. The website has beautifully written Catholic content and stories, it's sparking curiosity and teaching people about the Faith, it's telling people, come join us and be part of our church and the Faith."

Parish leaders describe their Faith In Action websites as:

- A strategic tool for information about the parish faith formation programs
 - A source to coordinate content for Alive in Christ
 - An excellent source of information about the Catholic Faith
 - A place for everyone to read stories about the faith and families, Catholic news, daily meditations and reflections from Pope Francis
 - A way to extend website content easily through social media
- Faith in Action websites are one component of Our Sunday Visitor's program, Funding Excellent Faith Formation.
