"How do we release the charisms of the Holy Spirit to be used by God? We renew the faith of our baptism, by surrendering to Jesus Christ. As I agree to belong entirely to Christ, I give him permission to awaken his gifts for the good of others."

"Why do you think they call the Catholic Church a sleeping giant? Because very few step out in faith. We have the sacraments and we think that's all we need. We need the Church for the sacraments. The church needs us for the charisms."

Faith gives us vision and hope gives us strength, but in the end, faith and hope are for this world only. At the gates of heaven, love will hug faith and hope goodbye. She will thank them for escorting her home, and love alone will enter heaven. "
