MICHAEL GRASINSKI

PRESIDENT, RUAH WOODS

PRESENTATION: YOU ARE NOT WHO THEY SAY YOU ARE: THE JOY OF RECLAIMING OUR IDENTITY

Michael Grasinski became the President of the Ruah Woods Institute in August of 2020. Michael has spent years becoming immersed in the intellectual and spiritual riches of the Church, studying philosophy and theology at Mount St. Mary's University, then completing his B.A. in Theology from Catholic Distance University. After that, he spent a year attending the Pontifical John Paul II Institute, followed by the completion of his M.A. in philosophy at Franciscan University. His understanding of the nature of the human person made in the image and likeness of God has prepared him to lead this extraordinary ministry at the Ruah Woods Institute, sharing the beautiful teachings of St. John Paul II to educators everywhere. Michael is married to his wife Alyssa, and is a father to two daughters, Gemma and Maria, and one boy, Ezra.
